EVENING PROGRAMS

Kazuo Ikebasu has been working at Father Edward J. Flanigan's Boystown. Tonight, you will hear about this interesting nationally famous character building school. The chairman will be Asako Sawamura.

At the CYF, our center librarian, Mrs. Mathilda Muyskens, will bring helpful suggestions in reading good books. Out of the wealth of her experiences, Mrs. Muyskens will speak informally. Jessie Yokota will be chairman.

Both meetings will start with a songfest at 7:30 p.m.

RESPONSE

"Your offering (World Communion) will be used in our work of evangelization and service to those in need. Accept best wishes for the continuing success of the work you are doing..." Dr. Jacob A. Long, Board of National Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A.

We have also received World Communion offering acknowledgments from the Northern Baptist and the Salvation Army headquarters.

The American Bible Society acknowledges with gratitude the offering of thirty dollars, which we sent in appreciation for the work of the Society.

Remember NATION-WIDE BIBLE READING, Thanksgiving to Christmas. Ask for leaflet and V-mail forms.

THANK YOU!

For the encouraging and inspiring messages, we are all grateful to Dr. Hilda L. Ives and Dr. Hachiro Yuasa.

To the High School art class led by Miss Jamieson and Mr. Sugimoto; Community Activities Section; Mr. Yakura, poster division; the McGehee Times; Dr. Garrott and Mrs. Sasaki, work on music, and each one of you who helped, we want to say "Thank you very much." Our Christian Mission was certainly a blessing.

Fumi Kumagae and folks, for donation upon relocating to Cleveland last Wednesday.

Masayoshi Omura, thank offering upon return from the Tulelake center.

Committee on Resettlement of Japanese Americans for Resettlement bulletins.

United Christian Ministry of Minneapolis Church Federation, Minneapolis, Minn., for bulletins.

PERSONALS

Rev. Y. Oyama, pastor of the Church of Christ (Japanese) Chicago, Illinois, under the Fourth Presbyterian Church, has sent us the first issue of their weekly church bulletins.

"My 'hello' to my YP friends. Thanks", says Pvt. Fred Koyama 38663476, Co. B, 146 M.T. Bn., 2nd Plt., Fort Lewis, Wash.

"Thank you sincerely for your church bulletins. My thoughts are always with those who are in Rohwer," pens Lily Takeda, who is enrolled at the Univ. of Illinois, Champaign, Illinois.

George Asawa of Camp Barkeley, Texas, writes: "I have met a Caucasian soldier who used to work at Manzanar Relocation Center...he will try his best and work with Japanese Americans on the relocation problem of Japanese families after the war."

Former Sunday School teachers, Toyo and Hide Ijuin are working in Chicago. 4677 N. Michigan Ave., Chicago, Illinois.

Marye Matsuzawa is working with the American Friends Service Committee in Philadelphia. 2910 N. 16th St.

Tai Shigaki writes: "A person doesn't really know life in these United States until they have been and spent some time in New England...Andover Newton (Seminary) certainly is a taste of the Kingdom as it should be...as all those striving toward the reality of it think of it. The Christian spirit of fellowship is something I shall never forget."
